

Presented by YWCA's Gender-Based Violence
Specialized Services (GBVSS) team

Join YWCA for a series of events about the intersection of racism and gender-based violence and help us celebrate a "Week Without Violence: Black, Bold & Brave."

Sun, 10/18 - Selfie Sunday

Help us kick off Week Without Violence by following #WWV20 and sharing a selfie with one of our fillable signs on social media.

Mon, 10/19 @ 10:30 a.m. - Gender-Based Violence in Our Community

Meet the leaders of YWCA's programs serving Black women and survivors to learn about the ways gender-based violence impacts our community.

Tue, 10/20 @ Noon - Intimate Partner Violence & Black Women

Join us for a presentation by Dr. Carolyn West about the ways historic trauma and oppression compounds the impact of gender-based violence for Black women survivors.

Wed, 10/21 @ Noon - Survivor-Defendants in the Criminal Justice System

Learn how a unique partnership between YWCA and the King County Prosecutors Office supports survivor-defendants, victims of abuse who are accused of a DV related crime.

Thu, 10/22 @ Noon - Helping Survivors Thrive

Hear from YWCA's staff about the ways they meet the needs of survivors of domestic violence, trafficking, and sexual assault, and the importance of specialized services for Black women.

Fri, 10/23 @ Noon - Freestyle Friday FAQ

Bring your questions and join an informative and interactive Q&A with the staff of YWCA's gender-based violence programs and learn how you can support survivors in our community.

Sat, 10/24 - Self-Care Saturday

Taking time to heal is important for everyone, especially survivors, service providers, advocates, and activists. Follow @YWCAworks for self-care suggestions and share your tips.
