Basic Food Employment and Training

YWCA BFET Program—King County

YWCA IS ON A MISSION

Why BFET?

Do you need assistance to get the job that you always wanted?

Do you need coaching or other help to find that job?

Do you receive Basic Food (SNAP) benefits from DSHS?

Do you want to improve your skills so you can qualify for higher-paying jobs?

Are you interested in subsidized (FREE) job training to enhance your skills?

Is BFET the right way for you?

Enrolling in the BFET program allows you to maintain your Basic Food benefits while going to school. You may also receive help with tuition, books, and supplies.

The BFET program provides a variety of employment training activities, along with job search support and service & resource referrals.

About BFET

The Basic Food Employment and Training (BFET) program is an important part of Washington State's comprehensive workforce development system.

BFET serves the needs of low-income individuals, indigent workers and employers by encouraging financial independence from public assistance through personal responsibility and gainful employment.
